

Fwd: Thanks for coming to our Seed Propagation and Collection Workshop

SEYM LONG <scagi7215@gmail.com>
Draft

Mon, Jun 5, 2023 at 1:

From: Landcare Tasmania <support@landcaretas.org.au>
Subject: Thanks for coming to our Seed Propagation and Collection Workshop
Date: 19 April 2023 at 10:22:54 am AEST
To: Quentin and Kerryn Smith <qentsih@gmail.com>

Hello Quentin and Kerryn Smith,

Thanks for joining us for the Seed Propagation & Collection Workshop in Bicheno. It was great to meet you all, and we hope you enjoyed the day as much as we did.

Here are some further resources if you are interested:

- Handy resources for seeds, plants and propagation \(Landcare Tas\)
- Plant species by municipality \(Understory Network\)
- Salt bush cuttings with Ruth Mollison
- How to make a Herbarium with Ruth Mollison

Gallery:

Image: Workshop attendees getting into seed propagation.

This workshop is a part of Landcare Tasmania's Landscape Restoration and Community Outreach programs, funded by the State Government's Landcare Action Grants Round 6.

Stay Involved!

There are plenty of ways to get involved with Landcare in Tasmania! Keep an eye on our Facebook and Instagram pages, and our online Events Calendar.

All donations make a big impact. If you'd love to see more events like this, you can help by donating to the Tasmanian Landcare Fund - all donations support Community Landcare in Lutriwita/Tasmania. Donations over $2 are tax-deductible. Whether or not you have the time or ability to get on-ground and volunteer, donating is a great way to be a Landcare supporter.

Donate

Who is Landcare Tasmania?

Landcare Tasmania is a not-for-profit, non-government, grassroots community-led organisation. We empower people to care for their local landscapes - whether on public reserves or private property, whether on land, coasts or waterways - Landcarers are just people like you who want to make a difference!

Our membership includes over 150 Individual members and over 300 Landcare member groups statewide, with over 6,000 volunteers.

Landcare Tasmania acts as a conduit between all sectors of land and community, providing the essential connectivity needed for a united movement tackling large problems from the bottom up. Find out more about us here.

If you have any suggestions or questions simply reply to this email or call our office on (03) 6234 7117. We have a small staff in Hobart and will do our best to get back as soon as possible.

Kind regards,

The Landcare Tasmania Team

Peter Stronach – CEO

Rachel Larner – Finance and Administration Manager